

Some Non-Traditional Share / Certificate Offerings in Ships

• Both The London Missionary Society and the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions sold shares to build and operate missionary ships in the South Pacific.

• The Black Star Line, founded by Marcus Garvey (1887 – 1940), issued shares to “...promote the return of the African Diaspora to their ancestral lands.”

• Greenpeace International, the Netherlands based non-profit environmental defense foundation, used crowd funding to build its new Rainbow Warrior.